

Course Title	Course Duration
FIRE WARDEN/FIRE MARSALL TRAINING (Eco20)	½ DAY

Course Overview

This half day course aims to provide Fire Safety instruction for managers/supervisors and those with responsibilities implementing and maintaining fire safety management procedures in the workplace, in order to ensure:

- The safety of your colleagues and customers.
- Your own safety.
- Adequate protection for the workplace.
- As required by the Fire Service, and is identified in your fire risk assessments.

Objectives:

- To gain an insight to fire and fire behaviour.
- To eradicate fire hazards before they cause actual fires.
- To play an active part in the safety of all persons in the event of an emergency situation.
- To extinguish fires, in their incipient stages whilst ensuring the safety of yourself and others, where time permits.

Who Should Attend

Any individual who has a designated responsibility within the workplace to be part of the fire team

Other Requirements (e.g. Equipment needed)

All equipment is provided for courses by the instructor

Course Content

This course involves both practical and theoretical sessions. On completion of the course candidates will be able to:

1. Select and use appropriate fire extinguishers for different classes of fires
2. Understand the importance of clear emergency procedures and equipment maintenance schedules.

Programme:

- Introduction
- Understand the legal requirements in relation to fire safety issues
- Fire statistics
- Chemistry of combustion/Methods of Fire Spread
- The effects of Heat & Smoke
- The role of the Fire Warden and Fire Marshall
- Causes of Fire in the workplace
- Identify the fire precaution measures available in the workplace and how to manage them
- Understand Evacuation Procedures and how to put them into practice safely
- Evacuation Drill and System Testing
- Action taken on discovering a fire
- Fire Classifications
- Correct types of Fire Extinguishers
- Demonstrate safe and effective use of portable firefighting equipment
- Formal Assessment

Course Outcome

Certificate of competence issued upon successful completion of assessment